Robert,
Thank you. I am looking at this on an iPad. Are there tracking or comments that outline what is viewed as inaccurate for my clarity and understanding?
Thank you,

As we discussed earlier on the phone, my initial impression was that the document's tone and posture was unbalanced and in some areas, inaccurate. I hope our suggestions are helpful. We are happy to review an updated draft. I've also attached an EPA document outlining EPA's approach and legacy of reusing Superfund sites that also may be helpful.
